Phoenix's Mo Iqbal takes a superb catch

Super Rangers topped the leaderboard at the mid-point of this summer's Victoria Park Community Cricket League, as the opening three divisions prepared to split into four divisions for the remainder of the season.

The Rangers ended the week nine points clear at the top after London Tigers pulled out of their match and are huge favourites to claim the title, with their points carrying over into the new First Division.
In Division One, there was a straight battle between Sky and Rose & Crown to avoid joining the bottom-placed Mile Tailenders down in the new Second Division (alongside the existing top four of Division Two).

Sky fell first to defending champions Millwall, who closed their innings on a below par 129-5, boosted by late batting from Saif Khan (33) and Ripon Ahmed (34) as the top order struggled to get going. In reply, Noz Hussain top scored for Sky, but a fantastic spell of 3-18 from Millwall's Jamil Ahmed saw Sky bowled out for just 74.
This result meant a Rose & Crown win two days later would relegate Sky. And the Crown duly delivered in their match against second-placed Old Fallopians 1st VIII. In a reduced fourteen-over contest, the Fallopians were led by decent knocks from Suhail Shahid (44) and Rav Matharu (31). But a solid bowling and fielding display kept them in check with Crown's Paul Fenney taking 2-28 as the Fallopians finished on 128-3. In response, Joe Fisher and Nag Mangalagiri led a superb partnership after losing Patrick Heaphy for 16, as the Crown kept up with the rate. Nag retired unbeaten on 51 after blazing three glorious sixes, leaving the Crown in a strong position. Mozzam Sultan pulled the Fallopians back into the match, bowling Fisher for 33 as the Crown's chances suddenly looked in danger. In the last over they need six to win and brothers Paul and Sean Feeney kept a level head to guide the Roses to victory with just a ball to spare.

London Fields smashed the highest score of the season against Mile Tailenders, as skipper Will Isaac (53), Hitesh Naik (55) and Gaurav Jadhav (40) thundered in a storm of sixes to a formidable total of 218. In return, Tailenders' Rich Carrington continued his superb form as he smashed an enjoyable 43, as his side ended their Division One status with a respectable 127-5, Felix Cofie (26) and Wilson Digby (22) also chipping in. The Fields' tally of 218 was one more than the previous season high of 217, ironically scored against them by rivals Sky.

In Division Two it was a literally a tale of two halves, with top four staying in the new Second Division and the bottom four facing a drop to the Third Division. Broadway Market started the week looking confident of a berth in the Second Division, sitting three points clear of fifth-placed Bansko Bears. But a defeat for Broadway and a win for Bansko would see the Bears through on their head-to-head result.

In Division Two it was a literally a tale of two halves, with top four staying in the new Second Division and the bottom four facing a drop to the Third Division. Broadway Market started the week looking confident of a berth in the Second Division, sitting three points clear of fifth-placed Bansko Bears. But a defeat for Broadway and a win for Bansko would see the Bears through on their head-to-head result.

Bansko were first up and looked in good touch against Regents. Acting skipper Tom Curtis carried his bat with a composed 48, alongside Giaco Bridget (37) and Van De Berg Jared (27) as the Bears hit a competitive 153-5. Daniel Ormsby replied with a solid 50 in response for Regents and at one stage his side was looking very threatening, with David Campbell hitting 24 at the other end. However, Bansko's van der Berg Jared took two crucial wickets, including Campbell's, as Regents finished 26 runs short on 127-3. The win for Bansko elevated them to fourth place in the table and left them hoping for a Broadway defeat on Thursday to secure their place in the new Second Division.

Broadway's challenge was to defeat second-placed and in-form Homerton, who had lost only one match all season. Opting to bat first, Broadway's Mohammed Saif (51) led from the front as his side finished on 131-4 with Shah Shared and Ed Sherwood contributing 28 and 24 runs respectively. However, Homerton's solid fielding and a wicket each for their bowlers made them the favourites in the chase. And that proved to be the case as the destructive opening duo of Saga Bora and Maxmillan Hutchinson (37) eased Homerton to victory in 12.3 overs. Bora hit another 50, as Homerton finished the first stage of the season top of Division Two.
Bansko Bears remained in fourth place and will now join Sky, Mile Tailenders, Homerton, Victoria Lounge and Expats in the new Second Division. Meanwhile Broadway join the bottom four and the top two from Division Three in the new Third Division.

Expats succumbed to a superb display by Victoria Lounge, with both teams already safe in the top four of Division Two. Expats batted first, with Alex Hickson (35) and Trent Byrne (26) looking in good touch with a decent opening stand. However, after the dismissal of the openers the Lounge dug in their heels and contained Expats to just 100-6, with Harry Molyieux tearing through the Expat middle order to finish on figures of 3-32. Victoria Lounge, despite missing skipper Jim Crutcher, never looked in trouble as Tom Stevens (40) and Stefan Phillipson (27) eased them to 114-1 in 10.2 overs.

At the lower end of Division Two, Camel Lights turned in a destructive performance against Masiha to bowl them out for just 37 in a match that lasted barely more than an hour. Lando Armstrong ripped through the batting with a stunning haul of four wickets for the loss of 18 runs. Masiha felt the absence of the missing the Ali brothers and had no luck in their innings, with just Tom Viegas (14) making double figures. Camels skipper Tom Porter (16) and the ever-destructive Matt Redgrave (17) saw their side home in just four overs. Camels will join Broadway, Masiha, Regents and the already promoted Wapping Dolphins and Mad Marrocas in the new Third Division.

In Division Three, the week saw the eagerly awaited clash between the top two of Wapping Dolphins and Mad Marrocas. Once again the Dolphins looked in ruthless touch. After agreeing a pitch change from pitch 3 to the shorter boundaries of pitch 1, Marrocas opted to bat first. Despite some great hitting from Jaimie Cox (17) and Edgar Maddicott (21), the Mad men were bowled out for a well under-par 59. Chris Monger bowled superbly for figures of 5-33 as the Dolphins took all their catches in a tight fielding display. Ignoring the loss of an early wicket, Sam Gilliat (22) and Adam Haines (14) guided Wapping to victory in a mere 6.4 overs to maintain Dolphins' unbeaten run in their debut season.

Pacific left the batting fireworks to the final day as they matched the third highest score of the season, smashing 209-3 against the Old Fallopians 2nd VIII. Paul Rajkumar (43) and Joe Deighan (53) led from the front, smashing 16 boundaries between them in a quick-fire opening stand. Pacific looked in stunning form as Tom Ireland (41) and Rizwan Siddiqui (32) continued the onslaught till the very last ball of their innings. In response, the Fallopians lost two early wickets but were steadied as Jack Holmes hit a smashing half century consisting of ten fours alongside a composed twenty-seven from skipper Hassan Khan. The Fallopians batted out their overs to finish on 137-3, some 72 runs short. The two sides will enjoy a rematch later in the season in the new Fourth Division.
Phoenix All-Stars saw off Sports Interactive thanks to a superb spell from Firoz Husain. The spinner took three wickets for just six runs, with Pete Sottrel (19) and Michael Burling (16) top scoring as the Interactive were bowled out for 61. Atu Jewitt (28) and Saj Rehman (24) were the leading scorers for Phoenix as they eased to victory in 7.4 overs. Again, both teams can look forward to a Fourth Division rematch.

MUFG pulled off a superb victory over fellow co-workers Royal Strikers. MUFG captain Tirth Poddar led from the front with a marvellous 50, alongside fellow opener Adnan Akram (51) as their side hit 164-2. The Strikers never quite found their rhythm, despite five of their batsmen making double figures as Poddar took 3-22, bowling out the Strikers for 146, some 18 runs short with Mohan Gandhi (20) top scoring. Despite their defeat, the Royal Strikers will top the newly formed Fourth Division where, like the new First Division, points will be carried over. Joining them will be Phoenix, MUFG, L&Q Living, Pacific, Old Fallopians 2nd VIII and Sports Interactive.

First Trophy of the Season as London Fields CC win the inaugural VPCCL Bowls Challenge!

Friday evening saw the first of a series of public bowling initiatives held at Victoria Park bowling Green throughout the summer.
Organised by VPCCL Secretary, Gary Horsman, these events - a mixture of invitational and open sessions - are aimed at widening participation and usage of the park's bowling green.
The bowling green itself, which is over one hundred years old, saw the first of these events as members of VPCCL teams pitted themselves against others, being shown the ropes by members of the VP Bowls Club.
The matches, mostly of five ends, saw committee member Tom Porter leading his Camels and Chair Phil Barrass heading up the Committee team, featuring Gary, George and Tom; whilst skipper Saga Bora led his Homerton side alongside ace bowler Mark Towle & his girlfriend Jess, London Fields side was led by Steve Fernbank; guest cup side NMCC by Richard Webb. Camel and NMCC also had some deadly women players in their ranks!

London Fields took 1st place, edging Homerton into 2nd; the Committee in 3rd, NMCC 4th and Camel finishing bottom - despite looking in good form, with some sharp bowling from guest player Edgar (Mad Marrocas).

There will be another VPCCL Bowls Challenge after the end of our cricket season.
