Wapping Dolphins kept up their unbeaten record this season in a Division Three rematch from last week's cup tie against Broadway Market to kick off another thrilling week of cricket at Victoria Park on Monday. Broadway won the toss, this time electing to bat. Despite the early loss of opener Tom Fulton, Friday O'Flanagan (17) and Anurag (18) steadied the ship for Broadway. However, Sam Gilliat pulled Wapping back into the game, taking a superb 3-18 as Broadway fell apart to 70 all out. In a blazing reply, debutant George Bryant smashed a couple of huge sixes in his undefeated 43 as Wapping eased to 74-1 in 8.2 overs.

Camel Lights, who play Wapping next week, survived a late scare to see off the always dangerous and newly promoted Mad Marrocas. Charlie Cox looked in blistering form, smacking a superb 53 for the Mad men alongside Danny Marshall (24) as the Marrocas were bowled out for 124 with one ball to go in their 16-over allocation. Quentin Kweeble was the pick of the bowlers, picking up 2-30. In response, Camels lost in-form Matt Redgrave early, with the team looking a little nervous as everyone made starts but struggled to get going. Skipper Tom Porter held the ship together with a controlled 19 before some late blasting from Kweeble (33) and Rich Hagen (26) helped Camel's edge home with an over to spare.

Masiha earned a victory over Regents on pitch 1. Keeper Stuart Miller blasted a superb 53 as Masiha made a huge 193-3. Rizwan Siddiqui (40) Gus Mackay (32) and Adnan Ali (27) also chipped in with some blistering boundaries. Opener Joe Kidd hit a super 50 alongside some superb shots from Jake Salmonsmith (33) as Regents put up a strong fight in their chase. With some fine bowling from and key wickets from Jamal Ali (28) and Gus Mackay, Regents were restricted to 146-5.

Old Fallopians 1sts avenged their defeat two weeks back to Rose & Crown on Tuesday in a closely fought Division One match on pitch two. Opting to bat first, opener Joe Fisher hit a patient half century alongside some late batting from Sam Wildy (37) as the Crown hit 143-2. Bilal Qureshi (44) hit some stunning shots alongside Bilal Quershi (34) alongside some late batting from Moazam Sultan as the Old Fallopians reached 144-5 with five balls to spare to edge out as victors.

It was a tough day at the office for Division Four's Sports Interactive on pitch three against MUFG. Openers Adnan Akram and Tirth Poddar continued their fine form for MUFG as both men hit half centuries to help their side reach 107-0. Interactive's Alex Bell took two superb wickets to finish on 2-25, as MUFG ended their overs on 135-2. In reply Poddar tore through the Sports Interactive line-up as he took a superb 4-9 as the bating side fell apart for just 23 all out.

Old Fallopians 2nds enjoyed a tense victory over Phoenix All Stars in their Division Four game on pitch one. A scintillating half century from in-form opener Jack Holmes alongside Vishnu Dubley (35) and Samsuddin Tipu (27) boosted the Fallopians on their way to 154-5. In reply Phoenix collapsed to 114 all out, despite an opening half century half stand between Ravi Sagi (30) and Joe Banks (27). Old Fallopian Jack Wright took 3-12 to cap a super all-round display from Jack Holmes finishing 2-19 alongside his half century with the bat.

Sky began their quest for promotion back to Division One with victory over Expats on Wednesday. Alex Hickson again impressed with a fluent 50 alongside some late blasting from Wil Paton (41) and Tom Corkey (31) as Expats hit 159-3. Sky looked in ruthless form - despite losing Nozmul Husain for 18, Gufran Hassan (55) and Rizwan Siddiqui (51) dominated the batting with some huge sixes as Sky raced to 162-1 in 12.3 overs.

Bansko Bears enjoyed a tense victory over Mile Tailenders on pitch two. Despite losing in-form Ollie Meikle early, the Bears looked in good shape as Will Arnold returned to form with an aggressive 52, alongside Giaco Bridget (27) and Tom Curtis (27) as Bansko struck a tricky 168-5. Wilson Digby led a superb chase for the Tailenders, putting on a solid half century opening stand with Felix Cofie. John Tilley continued the flow of runs with a steady 29, before Digby returned to the crease and the Bansko fielders moved to the boundary. However, despite his wonderful smashing, Digby couldn't quite cross the line as he finished unbeaten on 63 and the Tailenders fell just seven runs short.

In-form Victoria Lounge met Homerton on pitch three. Both teams had lost only one match each this season, with extra spice added to the game as the Lounge's single defeat was to Homerton by just five runs. In-form openers Sagar Bora (26) and Novak Hutchinson (11) got Homerton off to a confident start and all their batsmen reached double figures. Lounge fast bowler Harry Molyeux took a super 3-40 to keep Homerton in check, as Mark Towle top scored with an aggressive 35 alongside Marcus Weekes (19) and Sam Hickey (11) to see Homerton finishing on 128-7. In reply, the Lounge's keeper Tom Stevens and skipper Jim Crutcher (22) got their team off to a confident start before Crutcher was superbly run out by Sagar Bora with a direct hit. Stevens continued hitting a composed 49 alongside Stefan Phillipson (28) as Victoria Lounge chased down their target in with five balls remaining.

Thursday saw Super Rangers maintain their 100 percent win ratio after coming back from a terrible start to see off Division One rivals London Fields. Sam Barret took three quick wickets alongside Troy Utz to leave Super Rangers reeling on 20-4. However, a superb 50 from skipper Altaf Bhat alongside Asad Mujtaba (46), Ajmal Afzal (29) and Iqbal Miah (25) helped the Rangers to a challenging total of 190-5. The Fields in reply lost in-form Hitesh Naik for 23, as they finished on 118-6 with Wayne Henry top scoring on 27. The Rangers are two victories from the league title and face London Tigers next week.

Millwall produced a superb batting display to see off London Tigers on pitch one in a reduced overs Division One match. A superb start by Shakil Ahmed (43) and Mahfuz Mahi (52) alongside number three Rahe (38) helped Millwall to 165-4, as the pair hit some huge sixes. The Tigers fought back with half centuries from Rinku Hussain and Tuhid Islam – who struck eight boundaries to reach 55. But Masum Ahmed hit back for Millwall, taking a match-winning 3-20 as the Tigers fell 10 runs short, ending on 155 and handing Millwall a huge victory.

The Royal Strikers maintained their stronghold on Division Four as they eased past Pacific on pitch one. Strikers bowler Mukesh Rao took a superb 2-4 in his single over, alongside effective bowling from Som Chottekalapanda (2-35) to help bundle Pacific all out out for just 77, Muntz Siddiqui (18) and Keyana (17) top scoring. Keeper Arun Devanga hit an unbeaten 40 as Royal Strikers raced to victory in just 6.2 overs.

The Victoria Park league staged its very own Cricket World Cup Final match at the end of the week, with a result that looked ominous for the actual result at Lord's on Sunday. In the Victoria Park version, with 8-a-side teams drawn from New Zealanders and English players from across the league, 'New Zealand' narrowly edged out 'England'.

The Kiwis won the toss and elected to bat, losing their skipper and opener Brendan Cleaver (from Camel Lights) for a second-ball duck. Hugo Douglas Brown was the hero as the Broadway striker returned to the crease and hit a composed 59 as New Zealand finished on 163-6. Andy Scotts hit three huge sixes in his 29 alongside Wapping's Dudley Spiers' 20. Old Fallopians' Jack Holmes (2-24) and Phoenix's Firoz Husain (2-34) were the pick of the England bowlers.

England followed the New Zealand's pattern, losing skipper Will Isaac from London Fields for a duck. However, an aggressive 32 from Homerton's Sam Hickey and 34 from Rose & Crown's Joe Fisher kept England in control.

After Hickey's wicket, New Zealand fought back removing both men and running out the dangerous Wapping opener Chris Monger for just one as England fell behind the rate. Firoz Husain, fought back from a nasty smack on the arm to finish unbeaten on 34 as England ended on 147, handing the World Cup to New Zealand … at Victoria Park at least!

The week began with several first round matches as Mad Marrocas (189-4) saw off Evans Music (99-6) and guest side Stokey Scoundars (76-0) eased past NMCC (73-7) thanks to an unbeaten 36 from Stan Greenleaf.

Sunny Sanger was the hero for L&Q as they saw off MUFG, hitting an unbeaten 48 as his side chased down 111 in 12.3 overs, but Andrew James' superb 72 couldn't stop Sports Interactive being comfortably beaten by Phoenix All Stars.

Bansko Bears kicked off the second round with a comfortable win over Regents, hitting 150-5 with Olly Meikle (50) top scoring.

Som Chottekalapanda, Arun Devanga and Chetan Kushalappa all smashed 50s as The Royal Strikers reached 203-3 against Pacific who, despite a half century from John Deighan, only finished on 144-2.

Wapping, unbeaten this season, put on a sensational performance against Broadway as Dudley Spiers and Chris Monger both hit half centuries.

They finished on 204-3 before Bobby Watson (5-18) spearheaded a ruthless fielding performance from the Dolphins as they bowled Broadway out for just 43.

Victoria Lounge saw off Old Fallopians, hitting a formidable 187-5 with James Neal (51), Tom Stevens (35) and Stefan Phillipson (32) all chipping in.

Fallopians made a decent chase but fell 20 runs short on 167-3.

Expat booked their place in the third round with a comfortable victory over L&Q as Trent Bryne (50) top scored to help his side hit 176-4.

L&Q, missing their dangerous batsman Sanger, finished well short on 124-5.

I Don't like Cricket defeated Mad Marroccas, chasing down 138 in 13.5 overs and Guest side GAD (Government Actuaries Department) forfeited their match against Phoenix.

In the week's final match, Division Two high flyers Homerton were victorious over Stokey Scoundrels.

The Scoundrels saw skipper Sarafrat Ali hit a quickfire 53 alongside Nuzrin (53) and Sarafrat's brother J Ali (50) as they reached 184-2.

But Sam Hickey smashed eight boundaries, including three sixes, in his 20-minute innings as Homerton reached their target with 16 balls to spare.
