The first hat-trick of the season at Victoria Park was claimed at the start of the week by MUFG's Tirth Poddar who led from the front to help his side ease to victory over the Old Fallopians seconds on Monday. Poddar, who took four wickets the previous week, followed up with three quick dismissals to leave the Old Fallopians reeling on 18-3. Opener Jack Holmes (26) and Jack Wright (34) rallied before the Fallopians were bowled out for just 114, with Poddar finishing on 3-18. In response, dependable openers Adnan Akram (42) and Poddar (29) put on 83 for the opening stand before both fell at the same time, Akram bizarrely run out by Graham McGee going for a third, with McGee having a hand in all three of MUFG's wickets. Jagdish Patel kept the ship together though as MUFG reached 117-3 in 13.3 overs, handing them a second successive Division Four victory.

On the same night the Old Fallopians' first team gained three crucial points without putting bat to ball after a forfeit by their opponents London Fields, keeping them in the hunt for the Division One title. Over on pitch 2, Wapping Dolphins maintained their 100 percent record with a victory over Camel Lights in their Division Three encounter. The Camels, opting to bat, lost skipper Tom Porter early for just a single. But Richard Hagen (35) and Dave Sendall (31) put on a crucial second-wicket partnership with a late top-up from Max Sedley (25) to guide the Camels to 126-3. In reply, Wapping opener George Bryant blasted seven boundaries before being bowled for a quick-fire 36, alongside a speedy 18 from Chris Monger. Two quick wickets from debutant Abraham gave the Camels a brief respite. However, opener Adam Haines' remained patient, hitting a calm 46 as Wapping reached their target in the 14th over. Haines joins the small list of players yet to get out this season after six matches.

Division One side Millwall earned a crucial victory over rivals Rose & Crown on Tuesday. Opting to bat first, the Crown struck 134-7, with Charlie Challinor coming back in at the end to finish on unbeaten 55, aided along the way by Joe Fisher's 31. Millwall bowler Abdul Munim proved to be the thorn in the Crown's innings, taking 3-28, including the ever-dangerous Nag Mangalagiri for four. In return, Millwall lost both their openers cheaply, with the league's leading wicket taker Sean Feeney taking 2-30 to give the Crown hope. However, the ever aggressive Muzzammal Salman smashed a rapid 55 alongside a patient knock of 36 from Shumon Miah to help Millwall reach 136-3 in 14.3 overs.

Masiha maintained their unbeaten start in the second stage and looked in great form with a comfortable Division Three win over Mad Marrocas. Jaimie Cox shared a 60-run opening stand with Dom Borger (34) as Cox hit a dogged 51. Some late blasting from Charlie Cox's (29) helped Marrocas to a tally of 159-3. Keeper Stuart Miller hit his third straight 50 as Masiha, despite losing Adnan Ali cheaply, eased to victory in 12 overs, Jamal Ali (24) and Gus Mackay (20) chipping in to Masiha's 161-1.

Wednesday saw a tense and high-scoring battle between Division One rivals Super Rangers and London Tigers which produced a match aggregate of almost 450 runs. Super Rangers, unbeaten and two wins from the title, opted to bat first and smacked their way to 90 at the half-way point after eight overs. A wonderful 58 from opener Umar Mailk alongside 51 from Asad Mujaba helped the runway league leaders to 212-5. Indeed, it could have been far higher if there had not been a good second-half comeback from the Tigers' bowling. Despite losing their opener Rikter Khan in the second over, Tigers hit back with Mohammed Adnan (50), Mohammed Ripn Noor (32), Tuhid Islam (34) and a sensational batting display from number five Marhanur Rahman, whose 51 consisted of five huge sixes. With 10 needed off the final over, Rangers conceded four wides off the opening ball before Sayad Ahmed (20) smacked a boundary and a single to hand a first defeat of the season for Rangers. The result keeps open the race for the league championship with the Old Fallopians and Millwall squeezing back into contention – for the moment at least. Another effect of the Rangers loss is that Wapping Dolphins are now the only undefeated side left in the league.

Sky had few problems in Division Two as they saw off Victoria Lounge on Pitch Three. Sky, missing the ever dangerous Rizwan, lost Nozmul Hussain cheaply before opener Mustafa Zahid blitzed his way to 53, alongside Sarfraz Ahmed (35) as Sky hit a solid 150-3.
The Lounge, missing in-form Tom Stevens and Stefan Philipson, never quite got going after losing skipper Jim Crutcher early. Knocks from Rob Tatton-Brown (12) and a late surge from Tim Garrett (17) got Victoria Lounge to 86 in their 16 overs, 64 runs short.

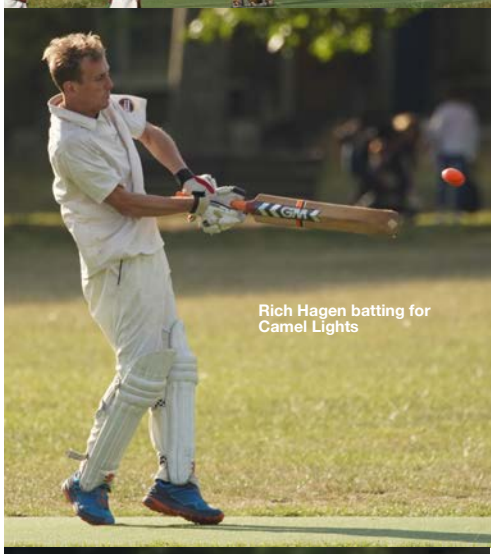

Broadway Market returned to form as they hit the highest score of the season against Regents on Pitch One. Opting to bat first, Broadway's Munir Shah (53) and Will Jack (34) put on a quick-fire opening stand before Jack Boone (50) and New Zealander Hugo Douglas Borren (51) – who was devastating against England's World Cup side last week - helped Broadway to an impressive 232-4. Not to be denied, Regent's strong batting put up a great fight. Jason Gibbons hit 50, alongside David Campbell who smashed four sixes in his 46 as Regents finished on what would normally be a winnable 177-3.

Homerton skipper Sagar Bora continued his superb season with a league-leading sixth 50 as Homerton defeated Bansko Bears in their Division Two clash on Thursday. Winning the toss, Bora (50) shared a patient 97 opening stand with Eoin Hutchinson (30) until Hutchinson was superbly stumped by Simon Fletcher. Sam Hickey continued his fine form, with a barrage of boundaries before being caught for a lively 32, as Homerton reached a daunting 182-3. The Bears, without skipper Chris Salter and Tom Curtis, opened with two league debutants, losing the first, Aman Dhir, cheaply. The second, Dave Ruddin, looked in great nick, striking a juicy 44 before holing out off an Arthur Salisbury delivery shortly after skipper Olly Meikle (14) was dismissed. Late flourishes from Rory Edmonds (14), returning following the birth of his daughter, and Giaco Bridget (13), helped Bankso finish their 16 overs on 150-6, some 32 runs short.

Expats turned in a ruthless performance against Mile Tailenders on Pitch One. The Australian side stormed into the batting, despite missing leading batsmen Alex Hickson and Trent Bryne. Openers Will Paton and Tom Corkery both smashed half centuries, with Sam Willis contributing 39 before he was stumped by Felix Cofie to leave Expats finished on 173-1. The Tailenders, who have missed their two key players throughout the season, looked in good nick in the chase, but Rich Carrington (29), Felix Cofie (22) and Wilson Digby (21) all failed to capitalise on good starts. Will Paton rounded off a fine match taking two key wickets as Expats ended as victors by 45 runs with the Tailenders closing on 128-5.

Phoenix All Stars rounded off the week's action with a Division Four victory over Pacific. Phoenix opted to bat first, losing an early wicket before Mo Ansari at number three hit a crucial 50 to help Phoenix finish on 144-5, with Atul Jewitt (23) and Mo Iqbal (19) chipping in. Despite an unbeaten 51 from the always dangerous John Deighan and some solid hitting from Muntz Siddiqui (30) Pacific finished short on 94. Phoenix's Husain took 3-27 and Mo Ansari, in a fanatastic spell, finished on 1-9 from his four overs, handing Phoenix victory by 50 runs.

Meet the Teams

Bankso Bears We originally founded the club during a lengthy après-ski session in Bansko, Bulgaria, so we decided to pay homage to the trip with the name!

Broadway - at one stage there were 7 Tom's playing for BMCC.

Camel Lights - Based at the Camel Pub in E2. Captain Tom Porter is an A Level lecturer in politics.

Expat led by Alex Hickson who was the leading run scorer last season in his debut year. Outside of the team he is a lawyer.

Homerton - Presents the Solly award after every match, dedicated to a former player who died in his thirties, the award can be for anything special in the game. And did you know that an English Cricket Captain, descendent of King Charles II & Nell Gwynn, formerly played regularly for Homerton CC?

L&Q Living London & Quadrant is a charitable housing association that houses around 250k ppl in 95k homes across London and the south east - we have two players playing in our team who have never played cricket before!

London Fields - At the end of each season we stage an intraclub match on the Fields, between England and the Rest of the World. It's twice gone down to the last over. Current standings are 3-1 to England, with 1 washout.

London Tigers - was established due to many young people in Inner London Boroughs such as Camden, Tower Hamlets and Westminster from disadvantaged backgrounds, demanding that they have an opportunity to play competitive cricket.

Mad Marrocas - We were created 10 years ago by a bunch of school friends from Tufnell Park. The name Mad Marrocas comes from a group we created as kids in which we would dare each other to do crazy stuff.

Masiha - Masiha means cure in Urdu, have been in the league for ten years and is made up of three brothers; Adnan, Jamal and Fozal.

Mile Tailenders - have the only two Sri Lankan based players in the league. Sanjay and Sojhan. Sanjay was the player who hit a century last season.

Millwall - All of our team members live in Tower and Hamlets and no one in Millwall. One of our team mates played club level cricket with an ex Bangladesh international.

MUFG - Every year MUFG and RBS play a match… This year was the 59th year that the game was played. And the same trophy is exchanged between the 2 teams.

Old Fallopians - It's a very old joke that Philip Barrass thought was funny 30+ years ago. Not to be confused with Old Salopians, as former students of Shrewsbury School are known. Ironically, the Old Salopians cricket team is actually called The Saracens. Only founding member of the league still playing with its original name The seconds were formed for the league in 2018 season.

Pacific - We were originally created out of colleagues from the Pacific records company back in 1983.

Phoenix All Stars - I (Firoz Husain) personally came up with this name as a phoenix always rises from the ashes.... Wanted to embed that spirit into the team...so a bit like coming back up when you're down...the fighting spirit! We currently have members from 4 previous League clubs

Regents - Founded in Regents Park, this is our 11th season. The Latin on the badge on our cap stands for "We hit fours, it's what we do". Which is less a reflection on our skills, just an adaptation of an amazing line we once heard a small 8 year old kid utter to his mate as he flayed the ball around on the nets one time. I hit fours, it's what I do…

Rose & Crown - The club started only because (in 1982) pubs used to shut at 2pm and to pass the time between it opening again at 6pm, some drinkers went over the park to have a mess about cricket game. After a few messes about, they decided to start a team. The rest, as they say, yada yada yada....Iain (Pat's Dad) was one of these 'legendary' drinkers!

Sky - Previously known as Mola Jutt is one of the oldest members of the league - the name 'Mola Jutt' came from a movie in Pakistan that paved the way and set trend of action films being popular in Pakistan- *Maula Jatt = is Hollywoods equivalence to Superman. Sky's team name actually comes from a company in Bangladesh where the branded shirts were bought from. They have won the league and couple double 3 times.

Sports Interactive -Every player works or worked for the games company Sports Interactive based in Stratford.

Super Rangers - Have changed their names 4 times over the last decade: ELCCC, Night Watchamen, Technosys and Friends. One of four teams to have completed the league and cup double.

The Royal Strikers - This is a team where out of 14 players only 6 have played cricket in the last 4 years at one time or the other. The remaining 8 either never played cricket at all or the last time they played was back in 2000

Victoria Lounge - Victoria Lounge takes its name from the Saloon Bar of a Walthamstow pub where the team was formed in 1995. Regular Oli Kavanagh stood as Labour Candidate for Henley on Thames in the last General Election and the team's first choice spin bowler Joe Cannon is the son of 1980s England Test occasional Eddie Hemmings.

Wapping Dolphins CC was established in 2019 by Wapping Hockey Club men's second team and called itself the dolphins to pay tribute to their favourite late night watering hole. Fun fact about one of its members, Tim West has a 12ft pet python named dolly.

In the second stage of the new four division format, Rangers collapsed to 20-4 but skipper Altaf Bhat (50), Asad Mujaba (46) and Ajmal Afzal (29) rescued their side to finish on 190-5.

The Fields lost key wickets throughout their innings, finishing on 118-6 meaning Rangers are two wins from the league title.

Shameer Qureshi (44) and Bilal Quereshi (34) top scored for Old Fallopians firsts as they chased down Rose & Crown's 143.

Defending champions Millwall kept their faint hopes of the title alive as they defeated London Tigers by 11 runs.

Shakil Ahmed (52) smashed four sixes as Millwall hit 164-4 in just 14 overs, with the Tigers finishing on 153-5.

Sky (162-1) smashed their way past Expat (158-3) in Division Two as they reached their target in just 12.3 overs.

A battling 49 from keeper Tom Stevens helped Victoria Lounge to a narrow win over Homerton while Bansko Bears saw off Mile Tailenders in a tense match which went down to the final ball as they reached 168-5.

Wapping Dolphins kept up their 100pc record this season with a second straight win over Broadway, bowling out their opponents for 70 and catching them in 8.2 overs.

Masiha (193-3) saw off Regents (145) in Division Three as Australian Stuart Miller (50) top scored alongside fellow Aussie Gus MacKay (32) in Masiha's formidable score.

The Camels saw off Mad Marrocas with a narrow two wicket win, with Joe Cox's 50 leading the Marrocas to 124-7.

The newly formed Division Four saw MUFG produce a fantastic all-round display to defeat Sports Interactive. Skipper Tirth Poddar (50) and keeper Adnan Akram (51) top scored as MUFG finished on 135-2.

Jack Holmes (53) top scored alongside Vishnu Dubey (35) as The Old Fallopians seconds (154-5) defeated Phoenix (114) by 40 runs. The Royal Strikers (78-1) also picked up a win as they had little problem chasing down Pacific's 77-7 in just 6.2 overs thanks to a 40 run score from Arun Devanga.

The Victoria Park Community Cricket League (VPCCL) saw a one-off cross division match on Friday as players from across the league came together in a celebration of the Cricket World Cup final.

An England team faced a New Zealand team for the VPCCL's own version of the Cricket World Cup final, with New Zealand losing skipper and Camel Light opener Brendan Cleaver in the second ball of the match.

But a superb effort from Phoenix's Hugo Douglas Borren, who returned to the crease and finished unbeaten on 59 alongside Andrew Scotts (29), helped New Zealand to 163-6.

England lost skipper Will Issac in similar fashion for zero but looked in good form chasing thanks to some superb batting from Homerton's Sam Hickey (34) and steady batting from Rose & Crown's Joe Fisher.

However, with both men dismissed only Phoenix's Firoz Hussain (34) kept the battle going as England finished on 147, 16 runs short.
