Broadways Will Jack hitting a superb 50

Regents Mark Partridge is bowled

Millwall maintained the defence of their league title on Monday with a superb performance against leaders Super Rangers, preparing for the contest by finally being presented with last season's trophy shortly before the match. Led by Arif Ahmed, Millwall went out firing on all cylinders. Shakeel Ahmed blasted another superb 50 alongside Shumon Miah, who hit a patient 47. With some last-minute hitting from Salman (20), Millwall finished on 167-6. Super Rangers in reply lost Saif Khan early and promptly collapsed, with Jamil Ahmed taking two wickets in succession, alongside three run-outs. Rangers were bowled out for just 60, handing Millwall a 107-run win. Just three points now separate the two sides. Both have still to play Old Fallopians 1sts, meaning one of the league's longest-serving clubs will help decide who wins the title.

Super Rangers skipper Altaf Bhat

Broadway saw off a tense match against Jamal Ali's Masiha on pitch 2. Masiha, missing in-form opener and keeper Stuart Miller, won the toss and opting to bat. Despite losing several early wickets, Masiha finished with a solid total of 146, featuring an unbeaten 39 from Gus MacKay alongside 17 from Adnan Ali. Will Jack led the respose for Broadway with a blitzing half century. The New Zealander shared a match-winning stand with Cam Roberts (38) and finished unbeaten on 54, as Broadway edged to 147-6 with four balls remaining.

Mad Marrocas enjoyed a tense victory over Regents, despite Regents' opener Daniel Ormsby again demonstrating his riveting form to smash a superb 55. Regents finished on 141-4, Ormsby sharing a stand of 89 with David Campbell, who weighed in with a confident 41. The Maroccas lost early wickets in their reply but Charlie Cox (51) held his nerve and his side completed their victory with five balls remaining.

Heavy showers washed out all Tuesday's matches without a ball being bowled, including a crunch Division Two contest between Sky and Homerton.

Wednesday saw Victoria Lounge return to second place in Division Two with victory over Bansko Bears in a low-scoring match on pitch 1. The Bears hit 110-3, with Tom Curtis (43) and Ollie Meikle (27) top scoring, as Bansko struggled to find the boundaries against solid bowling from the Lounge. In reply, Lounge skipper Jim Crutcher hit a patient 50. Despite losing James Neal for 14, Stefan Phillipson's hefty match-winning six in a score of 23 propelled the Lounge to victory, with two overs to spare. A win next week against Expats in their final game will guarantee Victoria Lounge a place in Division One next season.

Regents Tom Linay in the field against Mad Marrocas

Old Fallopians 2nds blew open the top of Division Four with victory over leaders Royal Strikers. Batting first, Fallopians opened with two Jacks - Wright (50) and Turner (50) - who put on a match-winning opening partnership as their side raced to 165-4. That challenging total could even have been higher if not for a late comeback by the Strikers' bowlers, Guru Nanjappa taking 2-36. Despite a sold 54 from Arun Devanga, the Strikers in reply struggled to keep up with the rate. Sumit Mittal (17) and Chetan Kushalappa (14) made decent starts but failed to exploit them. Fallopian all-rounder Visnu Dubey finished with 2-9 as the Royal Strikers reached 137-4, some 28 runs short. The Strikers now sit just a point ahead of MUFG, who they play in two weeks.

L&Q Living edged to within two points of the Division Four league leaders with victory over Pacific on Thursday. Despite losing early wickets, L&Q posted 182-6. Rizwan Siddique (57) shared a century stand with Aleem Hussain (54), alongside an aggressive 27 from Lee Addy as L&Q exploited the quick outfield, despite losing in-form star Sunny Sanger for one. Pacific put up a strong chase as John Deighan (50) shared a superb opening stand with Colin Pollard (44). However, Faizen Hussein (2-32) and James Denman (2-12) took the crucial wickets to bowl out Pacific for 143 and deny them victory.

Victoria Lounge's Jim Crutcher against Wapping

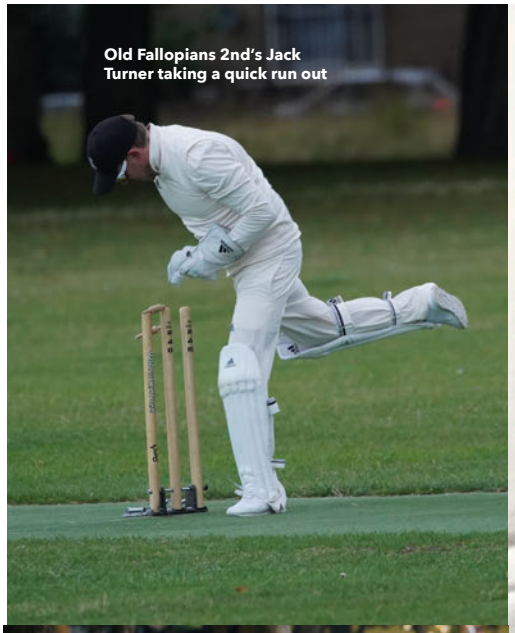

The week also saw the start of the third round of the Victoria Park league's Cup. Old Fallopians 1sts kicked off their campaign with a victory over Mile Tailenders on Wednesday. Opting to bat first, the Fallopians recovered from an early wicket after scoring just four runs to build a dominant target, with knocks from Mohammed Junaid (56) and Ollie Wrighton (50) as they smashed their way to a daunting 190-5. In-form Felix Cofie (50) led the chase for the Tailenders with Wilson Digby (31) and Rich Carrington (19) all looking in fine fettle. However, Fallopians' Moazam Sultan (2-34) and Sahameer Qureshi (2-33) tore through the middle order as the Tailenders fell 44 runs short, finishing on 151-5.

Defending Cup champions London Tigers squared up against London Fields on Thursday. Despite losing two wickets in the opening over for only four runs, the Tigers fought back, led by a superb attacking 65 from Jamil Ahmed and Rinku Hussain (42), as they finished all out on 144. In response, Vidal Bharath (35), Rob Friend (33) and Oli Turner (22) kept the Fields in with a chance, but solid bowling from the Tigers restricted them to 131-6, some 23 runs short. The result means a quarter-final date for the Tigers against Old Fallopians 1sts.

Division Three's runway leaders Wapping Dolphins lost their first game this season in a tense Cup match against Victoria Lounge. The Lounge, playing a second game in successive days, edged into the third round in a narrow victory thanks to some solid bowling. They were led from the front by openers Jim Crutcher (50) and Tom Stevens (50) to finished on 150-3. Stefan Phillipson (32) hit two late sixes to hand Wapping a tricky chase on the wide boundaries of pitch 3. In reply, Wapping disasterously slipped to 15-3, with the Lounge's Rhys Edwards taking two wickets in his opening over, removing the dangerous Chris Monger and the previously unbeaten Dudley Spiers. However, just like a certain Steve Smith in a test match on the same day, a superb batting display from the explosive Richard Ripper and support from the lower order pulled Wapping back into the match. Ripper hit an beautiful 54, aided by Dom Oliver (27) and Bobby Watson (24), leaving Wapping needing eleven off the final over. Thoughts about the possibility of a deciding 'super over' were in the air as the final over commenced. A wide was followed by a boundary and then Ripper returned to the crease, only to be bowled by Chris Stevens with two balls remaining, leaving Wapping all out and seven short on 153. The Lounge will now face either Royal Strikers or non-league side I don't Like Cricket, who play each other next week.

The Rangers hit 185-5, with Mohammed Naveed smashing a rapid 51 as Rose & Crown fell 36 runs short, finishing on 149-3 with Charlie Challinor (45) top scoring.

A win next week for Super Rangers over the defending champions Millwall will hand them the title.

Millwall kept their hopes alive with a crushing defeat over London Fields.

The fields were bowled out for 102, with Oli Turner top scoring with 48 and in response, Shakil Ahmed smashed a 15-ball 55, including five sixes as Millwall reached 108-1 in 7.5 overs.

London Tigers (162-3) defeated Old Fallopians firsts (99-6) with Mohammed Ripn Noor (54) and Tuhid Islam (38) top scoring for the Tigers.

Sky kept up their unbeaten run in Division Two with a last over win against Bansko Bears.

The Bears hit 174-5, with league debutant Anthony Dalton coming in late to smash 51 but Mustafa Zahid (54) hit a second straight half-century alongside Danyal Nadeem (44) as Sky reached 175-4 with six balls remaining.

Victoria Lounge and Homerton kept up the battle for the second promotion place as Lounge defeated Mile Tailenders, reaching 103-2 in 14.3 overs.

Homerton, meanwhile, enjoyed a strong victory over Expat despite losing skipper and the league's leading run scorer Sagar Bora for 0.

Wapping Dolphins maintained their 100pc record this season with another victory over Masiha as Stuart Miller made it a fourth 50 this season to help them reach 145-1 in 12 overs.

Regents earned their first victory of the season with a superb display over Camel Lights and Mad Marrocas completed their first win in Division Three over Broadway.

The Royal Strikers smashed 207-2 in Division Four against Sports Interactive and L&Q Living (152-4) saw off old Fallopians seconds (151-2) with just two balls remaining.

MUFG came out on top in a tense finale against Pacific despite missing both top scoring openers and losing several early wickets before Zuryaab Syed (40) and Jake Mince (38) helped them to the win.
