THE CUP

Expats produced a stunning display to defeat League One leaders Super Rangers within 50 minutes in the third round of the Cup on Friday. Expats, playing their second game in successive nights, had rested several players for this key Cup tie and the strategy paid off handsomely. In this game they showed the form that had taken them so close to the Division Two title in their debut season last year. Expats lost the toss and were put in to bowl against the usually dangerous Rangers batting line-up. A mere 48 minutes later the match was over. Expats produced a stunning bowling and fielding display as they caught every one of the Rangers batsmen, with Ed James taking a remarkable 4-1 from nine balls. It started with in-form keeper Umar Mailk nicking early to a delighted Santokh Kaulder and the wickets continued from there, with most caught at the boundary. Only Rangers skipper Altaf Bhat (17) made double figures before being caught by Trent Bryne off Hickson. James removed the normally dangerous Anhar Hoque and Mohammed Naveed in successive balls, ending with Hickson catching a very high smash from Ajmal, as Super Rangers were bowled out for just 55 in the seventh over. Expats Alex Hickson and Sam Addis had little problems in chasing their target and raced to 61 inside seven overs, with Addis striking 46 of the winning total. Hickson had only hit four runs until the very end when his match-winning six put him into double figures. Expats now face Homerton or Millwall in the next round.

With Phoenix forfeiting against Sky, the evening saw the last match of the week head into the dusk as Division Four leaders Royal Strikers struck 174 in 15 overs against guest side I Don't Like Cricket (IDLC). The Strikers' Som Chottekalapanda looked as dangerous as ever falling one short of a half century, alongside in-form Mohan Gandhi who fell for 45. Opener Chetan had earlier struck a patient 24, while IDLC skipper Ross Legg took 1-9 from his single over. In reply, a confident opening stand between IDLC's Jack Hope (45) and Tom Gower (31) kept their side on course and on par with the rate. Legg (53) followed that up with a super knock alongside Liam Ridley's 23 as IDLC closed in on victory, which they secured in a patient chase as they won with six balls to spare. IDLC will now face Division Two high-flyers Victoria Lounge in the next round.

THE LEAGUE

Millwall kept alive their hopes of defending their league title with victory over the Old Fallopians Firsts on Tuesday. Millwall skipper Arif Ahmed, playing his last game of the season in his team's final league match needed three points to join Super Rangers at the top of the table and force a decider in the final week. Arif duely obliged by hitting a captain's knock of 52 and sharing an opening stand of 83 with Masum Ahmed (41). Further blasting from Saif Khan (34) and a typically aggressive 32 from Muzzammal Salman helped Millwall soar to an impressive 202-3. The Fallopians lost two quick wickets but a smash-and-grab half century from Bilal Quereshi kept them in the hunt as he tore into the Millwall attack with some beautiful shots, returning at the end to lift his total to 66, the joint fifth-highest individual score of season. Bilal's brother Shameer (24) and father-and-son duo Suhail (23) and Sheraz Shahid (24) joined in the chase but the Fallopians fell 25 runs short at the end of their overs to finish on 177-6. As a result, the chase for the league title goes to the final round of games, with Super Rangers needing to beat Old Fallopians to claim the title.

Division Three's Camel Lights started the week with a comfortable victory over Masiha on pitch 3, bowling them out for just 80 as the season drew near its close. Masiha's Adnan Ali carried his bat for a patient 27 as others fell around him, while Alex Patten (2-28) and Maurice Cotterell (2-13) were the pick of the Camel bowlers. Dave Sendall (45) and Matt Redgrave (25) opened for Camels and had little problem chasing down their target for a wicketless victory in just nine overs.

Royal Strikers beat rivals L&Q Living and are now just one win away from the Division Four title. L&Q, opting to bat first, achieved a decent total of 143-5 thanks to strong innings from openers James Denman (43) and Sunny Sanger (41), helped by a quick-fire 19 from Aleem Hussain. The Strikers lost an early wicket in reply but Mohan Gandhi continued his fine form as their top batsmen with an unbeaten 50 alongside skipper Chetan Kushalappa (47) as they claimed victory with two overs remaining.

Phoenix All Stars completed a stunning chase to defeat MUFG in a thrilling match on pitch 2. MUFG hit a daunting total of 191-2 and must have felt the game was in the bag after Adnan Akram (50) and Tirth Poddar (44) put on a century stand, continuing their superb form this season, aided by with some late blows from Naresh Gatta (38). Phoenix stumbled early on in their reply, losing two wickets for just 10 runs, but huge shots from Mohd Kahf (55), Ajmal Afzal (51) and Firoz Husain (47) stunningly turned the game round from defeat, to a possible win and finally to a comfortable win. Firoz struck several massive sixes to guide Phoenix to victory with eleven balls to spare, as his side pulled off the second-highest run chase of the season.

Wapping Dolphins secured the Division Three title with a victory over Mad Marrocas, in the process maintaining their 100 percent league record this season. The Dolphins elected to bat first and, despite an early wicket, were guided to 177-4 thanks to opener Adam Haines, who hit his fourth 50 this season to reach a personal total of 277 unbeaten runs. The ever-reliable Dudley Spiers hit a confident 43 before being run out, while Richard Ripper's two sixes before being caught for 12 helped set up a solid total for the Dolphins. Mad Marrocas' opener Joe Gray gave his side a great start, smashing 43 alongside Dom Borger who hit a fluent 51. However, Marrocas were never ahead of the rate and fell further behind after losing Charlie Cox for a duck. Danny Marshall briefly revived the innings with some late smashing in the final over, but it wasn't enough and Wapping came home with an 11-run win.

Dudley Spiers and Richard Ripper following Wapping's win

Old Fallopians Seconds registered a comfortable win over Sports Interactive on pitch 3 despite a wonderful all-round display by Tom Davison. The Fallopians batted first but struggled to find their rhythm as Laurie Roberts (36), Jack Turner (29) and Anthony Banks (15) all failed to capitalise on decent starts. Davison was the thorn in the Fallopians side as he took an impressive 4-15, the seventh-best figures of the season, restricting the Fallopians to 126-6. In similar fashion, Sports Interactive's batsmen Alex James (17), Pete Sottrel (13), Matthew Taylor (13) and Neil Brock (12) all made solid starts but failed to establish a solid score, with Fallopians spinner Steve Hamilton taking two crucial wickets in succession. Davidson followed up his four wickets with a quick-fire 24 at the end of the innings but it wasn't enough to prevent the Old Fallopians winning by 33 runs.

Another huge six from London Field's Hitesh Naik

Rose & Crown returned to winning ways on Wednesday with a fantastic all-round display to defeat London Fields. After a sluggish start, London Fields finished on 143-6. Skipper Will Isaacs fell early but Hitesh Naik smashed several huge boundaries for a rapid 55 alongside Oli Turner's patient 34. The Crown's top wicket-taker Sean Feeney took 2-22 and Sai Madasu taking a super 2-7. League veteran Feeney finishes the season with 17 wickets, equal in first place with Millwall's Jamil Ahmed. In reply, the Crown lost two early wickets as Joe Fisher and Charlie Challinor were dismissed cheaply. However, the ever-looming presence of Nag Mangalagiri yanked the Crown back into the match. Nag looked in stunning form, smashing the ball to all corners off the ground as his 50 alongside Patrick Heaphy (33) and an unbeaten 32 from skipper Paul Feeney rushed the Crown to victory with three overs remaining.

Homerton saw off Mile Tailenders to leap ahead of Victoria Lounge in the Division Two table in their last league game of the season. Homerton's Sagar Bora continued his superb form, smashing a league-leading sixth 50 of the season. Lawrence Hutchinson kept the score ticking along, carrying his bat with a patient and well-crafted 48 alongside John Saunders Griffiths, who completed his fifty with the last ball of the innings as Homerton finished on 185 without loss. In reply Felix Cofie again continued his fine form for the Tailenders, hitting a superb 50. It was, however, the same old story for the Tailenders, who have spent the season chasing most of their games. Once again the Tailender batters all looked in good touch but couldn't quite carry it to the end. Wilson Digby (31) and Rich Carrington (24) were the top scorers as the Tailenders finished on solid but insufficient 144-2.

Bansko Bears beat Expats by 17 runs on pitch 3 thanks to another 50 from opening batsmen Ollie Meikle. Opting to bat first, the Bears looked in good shape, despite losing Andrew Tate early. Meikle again helped to spearhead the innings with another well-crafted and patient innings. He was assisted by more aggressive knocks from Steve Paul (22) and Chris Salter (20) as Bansko racked up a tricky 146-4. Expats, playing the first of two games on successive nights and resting players ahead of a crunch Cup tie, cheaply lost openers Sam Addis and the usually dangerous Trent Bryne. Tom Corkey, who has been in super form in the second half of the season, continued his run, hitting a fine 50, alongside Santokh Kaulder's highest-ever score of 24. Howebet, once Kaulder was superbly bowled by Cameron Mahon, who finished with 2-28, and Corkery retired on 50, the Expats fell short, despite enjoyable knocks from Gus MacKay (19) and Nick Buckley (16).

Shakeel Ahmed hit a superb fifty alongside Shumon Miah (47), as well as a late 20 from Salman, as Millwall finished on 167-6.

Super Rangers lost Saif Khan early as Jamil Ahmed took two wickets in succession, alongside three run-outs, and they were eventually bowled out for just 60 meaning there is now just three points between the two sides.

Broadway came out on top after a tense match against Jamal Ali's Masiha in Division Three as the latter, missing in-form opener and keeper Stuart Miller, finished with a solid total of 146.

Will Jack led the charge for Broadway with a half century as they edged up to 147-6 with four balls remaining.

Mad Marrocas enjoyed a tense victory of their own over Regents, with Daniel Ormsby again in great form as he smashed a superb 55, sharing a second stand of 89 with David Campbell as they finished on 141-4.

Despite losing early wickets, Charlie Cox (51) battled hard for Mad Marrocas, who completed their victory with five balls remaining.

A day of heavy rain on Tuesday saw the crunch Division Two match of Sky against Homerton washed out.

Wednesday, however, saw Victoria Lounge return to second in the division with victory over Bansko Bears in a low-scoring match.

The Bears hit 110-3, before the Lounge achieved victory with two overs to spare.

Old Fallopians blew open the top of Division Two with victory over current leaders Royal Strikers as Jack Wright (50) and Jack Turner (50) put on a match winning opening partnership before Strikers fell 28 runs short.

Thursday saw L&Q Living edge to within two points of the top with victory over Pacific in Division Four, posting 182-6 before bowling out Pacific for 143.

Many teams were also in cup action this week as Old Fallopians reached 190-5 to beat Mile Tailenders, who fell 44 runs short.

Defending champions London Tigers also progressed, fighting back after losing two early wickets to finish on 144 all out as they beat London Fields.

Victoria Lounge also made it through with a win over Wapping Dolphins, reaching 150-3 before Wapping fell just short.
