THE LEAGUE

It was a dramatic week at Victoria Park as titles were claimed, the rain returned with a vengeance and a dog decided to interrupt two matches with his owner frantically chasing 'Frank' across the wickets.

Monday saw Sky claim the Division Two title and win the prospect of promotion with a comfortable victory over Mile Tailenders. The day had been dominated by heavy showers, strong enough to prompt London Fields and London Tigers to call off their match in advance. But Sky were undeterred and opted to bat just as the sun broke through to provide a glorious evening for cricket. That choice proved be a success as Sky hit a huge 183-3 off a reduced fourteen overs, with brothers Aleem and Nomzul Hussain both smashing half centuries. Rizwan Siddiqui added 40 runs at the end to help Sky post a commanding total. In reply Felix Cofie continued his fine form for Mile Tailenders, blasting 38 runs before being run out by a superb direct hit from Danyal Nadeem. Knocks of 21 from John Speakman and 20 from Wilson Digby helped the Tailenders finish their allotted overs, ending the season nearly 60 runs short on 125-4.

On pitch 1, Broadway Market saw off Camel Lights in a tense and low-scoring Division Three match. The Camels lost several early wickets and found themselves adrift at 69-5 following tight, disciplined bowling from the Broadway bowlers and a superb direct hit run out by Tom Fulton. However, Maurice Cotterell led a recovery with several huge shots in a rapid and highly enjoyable 29 before the Camels were bowled out in the final over for 114, Ed Sherwood taking 2-5 from eight balls. In response Taylor Morley (26) and Will Jack (21) set Broadway on the path to victory, despite Camels taking wickets throughout their innings. Cam Roberts fell for 0, but Ed Sherwood (18) and Jack Boone (17) steadied the ship before their dismissals. Despite Kit Caless bowling Jack, Tom Fulton held his nerve to steer Broadway across the line with two overs remaining.

Tuesday saw Victoria Lounge earn promotion to Division One with victory over Expats on pitch 2. Expats, still revelling from their stunning Cup victory against Super Rangers last week, opted to field first. To begin with it looked like a great decision, as the Lounge lost skipper Jim Crutcher early, leading to a mini-collapse with James Neal (9) and Gary Flanaghan (0) returning to the boundary in quick succession. However, Stefan Phillipson and Tom Stevens pulled Victoria Lounge back into the match. Phillipson blasted a rapid 50, riding his luck as he was dropped four times at the boundary. The Lounge closed on 171-6, with opener Stevens carrying his bat for a dogged 47 and Rob Tatton-Brown chipping in with a solid 32. Despite an excellent opening from Steve Britto (50) and the ever-dangerous Will Paton (19), the Lounge bowlers proved tricky to get away. Ed James briefly rallied the innings with a 20, but it wasn't enough as Expats were restricted to 110-3. The Lounge ran out winners to earn a place in Division One next season along with Sky. If they keep playing like this, they'll be a tricky side to beat.

Wapping Dolphins finished their season with a fantastic 100 percent league record as they saw off Regents in what has been a highly impressive first season for Dudley Spiers' men. Opting to bat first, Regents made a solid start with openers Mark Partridge (23) and David Campbell (19) looking in solid touch, putting on 41 for the opening stand, before both were out in quick succession. John Mortimer briefly revived the innings with three fours in his 19 runs, but the Dolphin bowlers quickly rediscovered their rhythm as Dudley Spiers took Mortimer's wicket in his single over (1-6). Bobby Watson tore through the final Regents batsmen, ending with 4-31, including removing the last two batsmen in successive deliveries with the score at 99, meaning he will start the next season on a hat-trick! In reply, Wapping keeper Charlie Wright hit a 14-ball 50, as his team cruised past the target in the ninth over, with the loss of just one wicket, the normally dangerous Chris Monger out for a duck. Dom Oliver (26) and Dudley Spiers (16) finished off the match, with Spiers ending the match with a six to become Wapping's top batsmen by just a single run ahead of Monger. It's Division Two next season for the Dolphins with some eye-watering matches in store.

Phoenix beat L&Q in a 19-run victory on pitch 3. Phoenix struck an commanding 151-4, thanks to dominant opening stand between Daniel Venn (35) and Joe Banks (27). Afzal Ajmal enjoyed a late burst to smash 28 runs alongside a patient 20 from Saj Rehman, who demonstrated some interesting scoop techniques. In reply, Phoenix lost in-form James Denman early. However, that only brought in the always dangerous and top-scoring Sunny Sanger, who shared a superb stand with James Boon (27). Sanger again superbly imposed his authority, smashing another 50, taking his season's tally to 419 runs for an average of 139. However, with Sunny retired on the boundary and with a wicket apiece for each of the Phoenix bowlers, L&Q fell short, ending on 132-4, despite some late bursts from Aleem Hussain (18) and Marc Gorman (12).

It was back to a day of heavy rain on Wednesday with all three games abandoned, handing Super Rangers the single point they needed to claim the 2019 league title, as Altaf Bhat and his team braved the heavy rain to celebrate. Super Rangers have needed just a point for the crown for the last three weeks and finally got what they needed from their abandoned game against Old Fallopians 1sts to reclaim the title they won under their former guise as Technosys.

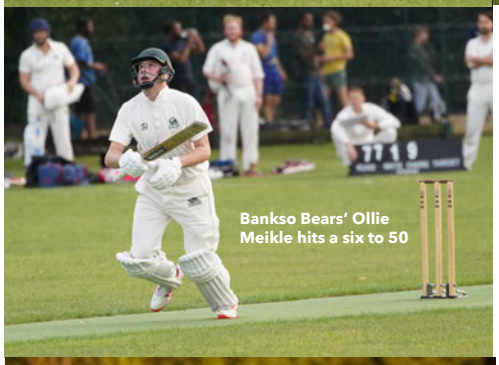

With MUFG and Royal Strikers calling their game off earlier in the day, Royal Strikers claimed the Division Four title in their debut season as they take an unassailable five-point lead into next week with just one match left.

Old Fallopians 2nds became the first side in Division Four to end their season as the showers forced the abandonment of their match against Pacific.

THE CUP

Last year's runners up Millwall and the Rose & Crown booked the final two Cup quarter-final places with victories over Homerton and Bansko Bears respectively.

Millwall, who narrowly failed to regain their league title this week, opted to bat first against Homerton. This was a game where both sides were without their captaining opening batsmen. Homerton took full advantage as they tore through the opening first three batters, with Mark Towie, Dan Ulzhoefer and Arthur Salisbury taking a wicket apiece to leave Millwall reeling at 30-3. Acting Millwall skipper Shumon Miah held his nerve to hit a patient 51, alongside aggressive late batting from Mahfuz Mahi who smashed a rapid 51, as Millwall roared back to life and finished on an impressive 181-5. Hutchinson (25) and Sandeep Reddy (19) put on a solid opening platform for Homerton, but with tight bowling they struggled to get the ball away and both fell to the tricky Millwall spinners. Despite some late bows from Mark Towie (27) and an unbeaten Sam Hickey (18) and Lorenzo de Glossop (12), Homerton finished 68 runs short. Millwall's Jamil Ahmed again looked in good form, removing the dangerous Towie and finishing with 2-26. It's a quarter final date against Alex Hickson's Expats next for Millwall, with the victor set for the Bank Holiday finale.

Rose & Crown edged past Bansko Bears to set up a tie with Sky next week in a hard-fought match on pitch 2. Bansko opted to bat first and, despite losing Rory Edmonds cheaply, built a strong foundation with Ollie Meikle putting in some solid batting. Meikle hit his third 50 this season, the second in successive games, alongside Dave Rudd who smashed an enjoyable 40. But tight bowling from the Crown kept the Bansko batsmen at bay as the Bears finished on a par 144-3. Rose & Crown opted for quick singles and after a couple of close shaves Pat Heaphy was superbly stumped by Fletcher for nine. However, the ever-alarming presence of Nag once again stole the show as he smashed another superb 50, with seven fours and two huge sixes. Despite losing both openers and skipper Paul Feeney falling, Charlie Challinor (29) and Sean Feeney (14) comfortably rode out the last few runs needed to guide the Rose & Crown to a quarter final tie with Sky.

Both games had a last-minute visitor, Frank the dog. This canine interloper invaded pitch 2 just to say hello before charging across the path to pitch 3 and briefly delaying the Millwall match, with his owner crying after "Frank" in frantic pursuit. Eventually Frank decided to turn back towards pitch 1 where his mistress finally managed to catch him. six balls to spare. IDLC will now face Division Two high-flyers Victoria Lounge in the next round.

Shock VPCCL cup victory for Expat as Wapping Dolphins secure Division Three title

Expat produced a stunning display in the Victoria Park Community Cricket League cup to knock out Division One title favourites Super Rangers and book their place in the quarter finals.

After losing the toss, Alex Hickson's men went out to field against a formidable Rangers batting lineup but 48 minutes later the match was over as Expat produced a stunning display to bowl out the Rangers for just 55.

Ed James took 4-1 in a remarkable nine ball spell with Altaf Bhat's 17 proving to be the only score above ten as Expat's openers Sam Addis (46) and Alex Hickson (10) eased Expat to victory.

In the other cup match, I don't Like Cricket booked a place against Victoria Lounge with a comfortable victory over Division Four's leaders The Royal Strikers as they chased down 174.

Meanwhile, Wapping Dolphins claimed the Division Three title with a game to spare thanks to a victory over Mad Marrocas.

Adam Haines was again in the runs for the Dolphins, hitting his third fifty this season as his side hit 166-5 before Marrocas fell just 11 runs short.

Camel Lights blew away Masiha with a superb all round bowling display thanks to openers Dave Sendall (41) and Matt Redgrave (25), with victory being secured in the ninth over.

Millwall produced an aggressive display to defeat Old Fallopian firsts, taking the Division One title race into the final match, as skipper Arif Ahmed hit 52 in his final match of the season to help Millwall reach 202-3.

Despite a valiant 66 from Bilal Quereshi, the Fallopians could only reach 177-6, with the title now going down to the wire with Rangers and Millwall level on points but Millwall a game ahead.

Rose & Crown chased London Fields' 143-6 with three overs to spare thanks to a 50 from Nag Mangalagiri.

Sagar Bora smashed his seventh fifty of the season as Homerton produced a strong performance to slip back into second place in their final league match of Division Two against Mile Tailenders.

Bansko Bears defeated Expat as they struck 146-4, with Olly Meikle hitting a controlled 50, before Expat finished on 129-5.

In Division Four, The Royal Strikers edged closer to the title with victory over L&Q Living while Phoenix All Stars produced a sensational chase as they defeated MUFG.

Old Fallopian seconds defeated Sports Interactive by 34 runs.
